ANGLO-AMERICAN ALLIANCE.
Basis of Compact as Reported by a London Paper.

London, May 31.—The Washington correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, telegraphing Sunday, says: "I have just learned from a high authority in the state department that important preliminary steps toward an Anglo-American alliance have already been taken. The recent visit paid by Sir Julian Pauncefote to the state department have not, it seems, had reference altogether to the Canadian negotiations. According to my authority, the features of the proposed alliance now being considered are these:

Great Britain is to recognize the Monroe doctrine, to attempt no increase of her territorial possessions in the Western Hemisphere, and to endorse the American construction of that doctrine.

The United States is to build the Nicaragua canal, and Great Britain is to have use of it in time of war. The United States is to have all the territory taken from Spain in the present war, and Great Britain is to protect the United States in the possession, if this should be threatened. The United States is to stand by England in her policy in China and the East, and the British ports in the East are to be opened to the United States under the most favored nation clause.

The main features of an arbitration treaty are to be incorporated. It has been provided that all matters in dispute, not involving the Monroe doctrine or the Nicaragua canal, are to be submitted to a non-partisan commission. The existing understanding bearing upon the relations between the two governments on the great lakes are to be abrogated, and the United States is to be given the use of the Welland canal in case of war.

DEWEY WILL PROTECT HIM.
Hong Kong, May 31.—The Spanish authorities at Manila have been warned by Admiral Dewey that he will hold them responsible for the life of the captain of the Spanish gunboat Callao, captured by United States warships.

This report was brought in by the British courier Pique, just arrived here. The Spaniards have been threatening to shoot the Callao's captain for surrendering, although his ship was confronted by the whole American fleet.

All American ships are at Cavite, in Manila bay.

TREATY WITH FRANCE.
Washington, May 31.—A reciprocity treaty has been signed by representatives of France and the United States.

Under the terms of the treaty our pork, lard, canned meats, fruits, common woods, logs and hops will be allowed to go into France at a reduction of 50 per cent. of the present duty.

The duty on French brandies, works of art and other articles will be reduced by this country from 5 to 15 per cent.

The agreement goes into effect on June 1.

PORTO RICO COMES NEXT.

Officially Admitted That That Island Must Be Captured.

CANADIANS ARE OUR FRIENDS.

Prayers Offered for the Success of American Arms and Cheers for the Anglo-American Alliance.

DEWEY SHOWS HIS NERVE.

Will Protect the Life of the Spanish Captain of the Warship Callao, Who Was Compelled to Surrender to Him.

FOURTH KENTUCKY REGIMENT FORMING.

Washington, May 31.—It was stated today at the war department that General Shafter will lead the invading army which will be landed at Santiago.

General Lee's corps will reinforce Shafter.

General Miles will go to Port Tampa at once to inspect the soldiers and supplies before the expedition leaves this country.

The war department admits President McKinley has ordered the invasion of Cuba to begin next Thursday.

CUBAN EXPEDITION LANDED.

Key West, Fla., May 31.—The steamer Florida has returned from landing a large Cuban expedition with a thousand rounds of ammunition near Santiago. The Florida effected the landing successfully without firing a shot.

TRANSPORTS LEAVE TODAY.

Key West, Fla., May 31.—Three transports carrying three regiments of infantry, postoons for brigades, tools and army supplies are here and will leave this afternoon for Santiago.

MAY NOT GO TO SANTIAGO.

Washington, May 31.—It is believed by many here that the real object of the expedition that is now said to be leaving for Santiago is not Santiago at all, but that the expedition will effect a landing some where adjacent to Havana. It is not seen what can be accomplished by landing an expedition near Santiago. Havana is the real object of attack and it is believed that the apparent selection of Santiago is only to cover up the real destination of the invading force.

PORTO RICO NEXT.

Washington, May 31.—It is officially admitted today that the plans of the President contemplate an attack upon Porto Rico after Santiago has been reduced.

This action the President considers imperative in order to retain Porto Rico after the close of the war. The President is fearful that Spain may sue for peace before the island shall have been captured.

CANADIANS ARE WITH US.

Toronto, Ont., May 31.—There was general demonstration in this city Sunday for the Anglo-Saxon union and the success of the United States in the present war.

In many churches special prayers were offered for the success of the United States and the discourses were

THE SITUATION.

It is believed at Washington that the embarkation of troops at Tampa for Cuba has already begun, and that the first army sent is to be used in a land attack at Santiago, co-operating with Commodore Schley for the destruction of Admiral Cervera's fleet.

Orders were sent to Maj. Gen. Shafter at Tampa yesterday to embark at once about 15,000 troops, mainly infantry and artillery, and put to sea under convey of naval vessels.

Rear Admiral Dewey has the people of Manila between starvation and surrender. The situation is reported critical by the foreign consuls. The blockading fleet secures chickens, eggs, bananas, mangos and pineapples from the natives. The Philippine insurgents at Manila have received 2,000 trench-loading rifles and 20,000 rounds of ammunition.

At 11 o'clock last night the total number of first call volunteers mustered into service was 122,120.

Kentucky, Iowa and Alabama are the only states that have not yet completed their quotas.

It has been definitely settled that the Third Kentucky regiment will leave Camp Collier for Chickamauga tomorrow at 4 p. m. The regiment will leave over the Southern railway in two special trains of fifteen cars each.

MORE SHIPS FOR SCHLEY.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 31.—It is learned here through a letter from Key West that the cruiser New Orleans, which has been with Rear Admiral Sampson's squadron, sailed last Friday to join Commodore Schley's fleet at Santiago de Cuba. The New York went to Key West for coal and to enable Admiral Sampson to communicate more directly with Washington.

The New York was ordered to sail with the Oregon for the south side of Cuba before Sunday morning, also to join Schley.

POPE TRIES AGAIN.

London, May 31.—The London News agency asserts that the Pope has forwarded peace proposals to President McKinley.

FAURE PLEDGES NEUTRALITY.

Paris, May 31.—M. Faure, at the unveiling of the monument to the combatants of 1870 at St. Etienne yesterday, referred in the course of his speech to the Spanish-American war, expressing his regret that the efforts of France and the other powers had failed to prevent a conflict.

The president declared that France was resolved to maintain the strictest neutrality, and he said he earnestly hoped that the efforts of the neutral powers would succeed in restoring peace.

MERRITT'S COMMAND.

Washington, May 31.—The number of troops assigned to Gen. Merritt's command has been increased by 8,000. This means that 20,000 men are to be taken to Manila as fast as the transports can carry them.

Gen. Merritt is to be allowed to designate the regiments from the volunteers which he desires. He has expressed privately a preference for two regiments from New York, one from Illinois and one from the District of Columbia.

It is extremely probable that the regiment of rough riders being organized by Col. Jay L. Torry in Wyoming and Utah will be attached to Gen. Merritt's command, as he is short on cavalry.

PHIL. SHERIDAN II.

Washington, D. C., May 31.—Philip H. Sheridan, only son of the late Gen. Sheridan, who has been spending a short vacation with his mother at the family residence on Rhode Island avenue, will go to West Point tomorrow, when he will enter the United States military academy as a cadet.

Gen. Sheridan entered West Point June 1, 1848, so that the entrance of young Phil, as his father's friends call him, will be in the nature of an anniversary.

DALTON, THE TAILOR

SCHLEY HAS FOUND CERVERA.

Saw and Recognized Cervera's Cruisers Inside Santiago Harbor—It Was a Daring Piece of Work.

MUST CAPTURE OR DESTROY IT.

Official Report Received—When Dispatch Boat Left It Was Reported Schley Was Preparing to Enter the Harbor.

CERVERA WENT TO SANTIAGO FOR COAL.

Washington, May 31.—The invasion of Cuba and Porto Rico will begin in once. Secretary Long has received a cipher cable from Commodore Schley announcing officially that he had seen and recognized the ships of Admiral Cervera's squadron in Santiago bay.

The Spanish flotilla consists of four fast armored cruisers—the Vizcaya, the Albatros, the Cristobal Colon and the Maria Teresa—and the two torpedo boat destroyers, Pluton and Furor.

The navigation bureau received the dispatches at 11 o'clock Sunday night and the officials immediately began the work of translation. It was a tedious task and consumed fully an hour. When enough of the message had been deciphered to make it clear that Secretary Long's convictions on the subject had been proved correct, the navy department in the neighborhood of light, and messengers were hastily dispatched to President McKinley, Secretary Long and General Alger.

It is understood that Commodore Schley, in addition to officially confirming the belief of Cervera's presence, cleared up the question which has continually arisen as to why the Spanish squadron had entered Santiago harbor. Cervera, owing to his inability to secure much coal at Matanzas and Coracao, and unable to replenish his coal bunkers, went to Santiago for the purpose of securing coal. Within thirty miles of Santiago is the only developed coal mine in the eastern half of the island of Cuba. Cervera, when he entered, made a requisition on the military governor for coal and a large detachment of the Spanish army. The work of mining was pursued diligently by this impressed force, and the coal was carried to the town and delivered to the ships as rapidly as possible. Cervera now has plenty of coal, but he will have no opportunity of using it.

Schley will remain in front of Santiago harbor until he destroys Cervera's squadron.

The department, after translating Commodore Schley's telegram, wired him instructions to the effect: "Under no circumstances permit Spanish ships to escape. Destroy or capture them."

The suggestion was also made to the Commodore to prosecute the work of counter-mining the channel of the harbor with the utmost speed. It was furthermore suggested that he bombard the fortifications with great guns. In that event, it is assumed, Cervera will emerge from the harbor. Public sentiment in Santiago, it is believed, will not permit him to be supplied in the harbor while the American warships are knocking in splinters the Morro and Socapa forts which guard the entrance to the bay.

M'PHERSON'S
FOURTH AND BROADWAY

Commodore Schley is credited at the navy department with having performed a daring act in securing evidence of the presence of Cervera's squadron in Santiago in the face of the howling storm which has been raging off the Cuban coast during the last four days. He leaves no room for doubt. His report that he has seen the enemy is taken to mean that some officers and men of his squadron have penetrated either into the harbor or effected a landing and surveyed the harbor from the neighboring hills. Some promotions for merit and intrepidity are certain to be announced when the details of the circumstances surrounding the discovery are learned.

With the reception of this, the most important news since that which announced Dewey's victory at Manila, the cloud of gloom which has hung over the war and navy departments during the past week has lifted.

The way is clear for the occupation of Cuba and Porto Rico. The path to the speedy conclusion of the war is open.

The Spanish squadron now is as good as sunk or captured.

ANOTHER SUSPECT.

Detective Wickliffe Left Today For Paris, Tenn., After the Negro Childs.

If He Proves to Be the Right Man He Will Be Brought Back to Paducah.

Detective W. A. Wickliffe left this morning at 7 o'clock for Paris, Tenn., to identify Sam Childs, the negro in jail there charged with being the assassin of Mrs. Lee Stanley. Childs was arrested there last week, and answers the description of the brute who shot Mrs. Stanley after attempting to cut her throat, exactly.

It is expected that he will return tonight. If the darkey is believed to be the one by the detective, he will at once take steps to have him brought back here to answer the charge.

The sentiment seems to be that Tom Deadman, the negro released on bond yesterday is not the one. He has practically proved an alibi.

Mrs. Stanley continues to improve, and is almost able to be out.

It is desired that every member be present at the social.

GREAT SLUMP IN WHEAT.

The Cereal Takes a Fall of 50 Cents On the Close of Leiter's Campaign.

LEITER'S ENORMOUS PROFITS.

His Wheat Deal the Largest in the History of This Country. Handled Cash Wheat to a Very Large Extent.

THE BIG WHEAT DEAL CLOSED TODAY.

Chicago, May 31.—May Wheat lost 50 cents today, declining to $1.25.

This fall was due to the closing of Joe Leiter's big wheat deal, a deal in which it is estimated he made over $6,000,000 and has handled nearly 40,000,000 bushels of wheat. Leiter's holdings of cash wheat have been as high as 25,000,000 bushels, and this wheat deal is the greatest this country has ever seen, and the most remarkable, because most of his profits were made on cash wheat, and not on futures.

FAMINE FEARED.

Kingston, Jamaica, May 31.—Advices received here from Cuban camps in the vicinity of Santiago de Cuba state that the presence of Spanish warships there occasioned fear of famine, because the military are mobilizing all supplies for themselves or the fleet, while the presence of the American warships outside prevents the carrying of provisions into port. great excitement prevails, and dissatisfaction among the populace is evident. Patriotic enthusiasm is undiminished, the people feeling that a mistake was made in bringing the squadron there. It was reported that Cervera only intended to take supplies, receive dispatches and proceed to engage Sampson at sea.

The Spanish authorities at Santiago believe it utterly impossible for the American ships to dash inside after Cervera, because in addition to the line of forts the channel has been thoroughly mined. Cervera is believed to have definite knowledge of the coming of the Chile fleet. The insurgents are drawing all available forces around the city, and are prepared in the event of an American naval victory outside the harbor to attack the city on the land side and endeavor to secure this last stronghold of the Spaniards in the eastern part of Cuba. The vessels of Schley's fleet are lying four miles off Morro Castle, Santiago.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

By Junior Wardens M. P. Church, South.

In order to take an intelligent interest in foreign missions, one must understand something about the missions themselves. Medical missions have become a powerful factor both as a direct evangelizing agency and in preparing the way for the gospel message. They treat annually more than 1,000,000 patients in their hospitals and dispensaries.

Youngmen's Christian Associations are now planted in Africa, India, China, Japan, Persia and many other not long since out-of-the-way places of the earth. Now they go with our brothers in war to China.

The Red Cross society is the result of Christian influence. In Japan the emperor and empress are its patrons. Their best steamers were put at the disposal of the society during the late war, as much to care for the wounded of China as Japan. Now our country introduces something new in naval warfare—a hospital ship, a sort of floating ambulance, which is intended to minister impartially to the needs of the injured of either navy.

This vessel has been appropriately named the Solace. Spain is bound to respect the Red Cross flag, and it is believed that the surgeons and nurses on board of the Solace will run any risk from the Spanish guns. The United States so grandly supports every mission of God's love, that henceforth it will be only to pity the man in his ignorance, who asks the question, does foreign missions pay? Why, they have paid if only in commercial returns. Last year $1,290,000 to evangelize the Sandwich Islands, and now the United States has a trade with them of $6,000,000 annually.

How would Santiago's horrid look to a man up in a balloon over it? He might see Cervantes' fleet—may be not.

The rule adopted by the department of refusing volunteers on account of some petty defect has been changed and the Adjutant General orders the enlistment to proceed when the defect is only a slight one.

The Maine will never be fully avenged until the Spanish flag is driven from the islands of the sea and the lace of the great waters, and floats tattered and alone over the wastes and wrecks of Audulusia, Austria, Leon and Castile.

Admiral Dewey, while measuring off new dominions for Uncle Sam, should include the Caroline Islands in his plat and survey. In the settlement of this war we may need something to trade on, and these islands may go for small change.

The latest proposition is to lay a cable from Manila to San Francisco via Honolulu, and this is to be done as a military necessity as soon as Congress makes an appropriation. This is a very excellent idea and the occasion for doing the work a most auspicious one.

The massacre of missionaries on the west coast of Africa is a subject for grave consideration, and demands severe retribution. Those barbarians should be taught a lesson which will not be forgotten in a century. The party which was assassinated was composed entirely of Americans.

The news comes from Washington that Speaker Reed has "consented" to allow the Hawaiian annexation bill to pass the House. The country will be very grateful to the man from Maine that the people's representatives will now be permitted to vote their sentiments. To do so, has been a rare privilege with the members of the present House of Representatives.

The postal routes on the south coast of Ireland are novel inventions, or rather cheap adaptations of natural phenomena to valuable uses. When a letter is written it is placed in a bottle and corked which is borne by the breeze and current to the opposite coast. Some trifle is always enclosed with the letter as a reward to the finder for delivering the letter to the address.

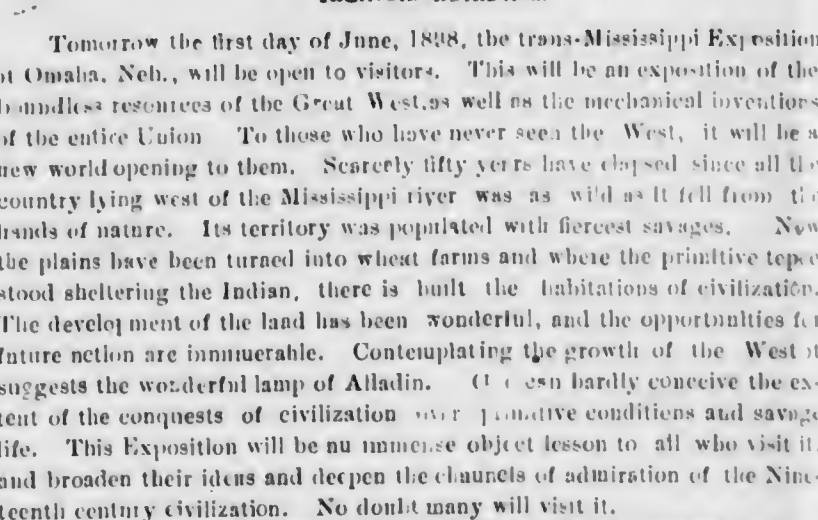

The echoes of Decoration day are such as to arouse the utmost satisfaction to all true patriots. The graves of the ex-federate dead were as generously remembered as those on the union side. No greater proof can be found of the destiny of this nation than the unity of action and amalgamation of sentiment and opinion that follows every political crisis when the victory of one or the other side is apparent. Everything is subordinated to the one idea of perpetuation of the Republic. Public opinion acts as the centralizing force that in monarchical countries acts as a restraining power and controls all discordant elements.

There is a warmer national sentiment between Great Britain and the United States than for a century past. It has been brought about by the acts of fairness and the agreeable sympathy of Great Britain for us in the matter of our little scrap with Spain. The readiness which several nations have exhibited to bully us has been held in check alone by Great Britain refusing to give them countenance. So far as an alliance is concerned, it would be premature at this time, and it is doubted if any paper agreement could make more certain our good offices and active help for Great Britain in any stress she may be in than the force of present sentiment. Uncle Sam pays his dollar debts and is not slow to show his gratitude for even small favors; but the people do not desire any alliance which will make us the mercenary to Britain's ambitions.

It is with great pleasure that the nation will note the comprehensive instructions given General Merritt to govern his course in the Philippine Islands. His instructions in fact are that he shall use his own discretion but shall of course maintain the supremacy of the United States. One cannot suppress the feeling that it would have been better to have allowed our military and naval chiefs at home more latitude and not to have attempted to control everything by the Board of Strategy. Time may demonstrate the wisdom of the formation of that Board, but the people at large have grave doubts about it today. The country is perfectly satisfied with the operations of Admiral Dewey; chiefly because of the remarkable success he attained, but partly also because there has

IOWA BUILDING.

ILLINOIS BUILDING.

Tomorrow the first day of June, 1898, the trans-Mississippi Exposition at Omaha, Neb., will be open to visitors. This will be an exposition of the boundless resources of the Great West as well as the mechanical inventions of the entire Union. To those who have never seen the West, it will be a new world opening to them. Scarcely fifty years have elapsed since all the country lying west of the Mississippi river was as wild as it fell from the hands of nature. Its territory was populated with fierce savages. New the plains have been turned into wheat farms and where the primitive tepee stood sheltering the Indian, there is built the habitations of civilization. The development of the land has been wonderful, and the opportunities for future action are immeasurable. Contemplating the growth of the West it suggests the wonderful lamp of Aladdin. One can hardly conceive the extent of the conquests of civilization over primitive conditions and savage life. This Exposition will be no unimpressive object lesson to all who visit it, and broaden their ideas and deepen the channels of admiration of the Nineteenth century civilization. No doubt many will visit it.

been no politics in it and no interference from a Board of Strategy operating from Washington. The people do not relish the idea of delegating to a committee or a board authority that should be exercised by the President or by the heads of the army and navy departments.

SOCIETY NOTES.

The girls have used everything under the sun for helms, it seems, but one thing is still left, and that is one of her best bean's silk handkerchiefs—not one of the plain white ones, but the kind that "Clappie Chawlie" would not—gay in color and startling in design. How you go about putting on one of the "moffler helms" is not exactly known, but before many days we may expect to see our girls with the bandana around their supple waists.

Little Miss Virginia Bennett, of Frankfort, is in the city. Miss Bennett is a very bright young woman, and is well known in Paducah for her witty sayings.

A HAPPY CROWD.

The Entertainment at La Belle Park Pleases a Large Audience—Very Up-to-Date.

Several Hits Made by Those on the Programme—Manager Taylor Makes His Initial Bow.

There was a large and fashionable audience at La Belle park last night to witness the magnificent vaudeville entertainment offered by Manager Chas. Taylor. A more pleased crowd of people could not have been found anywhere, and there was not a person who would not admit that the entertainment was equal to any attraction that was at the opera house last season at high prices.

Mr. Chas. Diamond, the celebrated harpist, who is without a peer, made the hit of the evening. He is known as the "Original Milestone Minstrel," and his name is a familiar one in musical circles. He rendered several selections in his inimitable style and received repeated encores, ending his entertainment by a medley including patriotic songs and my "Old Kentucky Home."

He has been on the road for many years and is the highest salaried man playing this instrument today. He is a K of P, a Mason and an Elk, being a member of New York lodge of Elks. Mr. Diamond is a pleasant gentleman to meet, as well as hear, and laughingly says for the benefit of those who have asked, that he is not a Spaniard. He will appear again tonight.

Another hit was made by Edward F. Reyuard, the ventriloquist whose powers are marvelous. He has a great variety of figures, and can make them talk in a most natural and amusing manner. His work surpasses anything ever seen in the city in its way and must be seen and heard to be appreciated. He won much applause.

The Middletons are high class artists. They appeared in up-to-date songs and dances, and in a clean comedy sketch which enabled them to show to advantage their talents as singers, dancers and entertainers. They received their share of applause.

Two who have made themselves favorites already, are the Fisher sisters, who appeared twice in songs, dances and acrobatic figures, receiving the heartiest applause from the audience.

A feature of the program, but nevertheless one that proved most pleasing to the crowd, was the appearance of Manager Chas. Taylor by request, in his celebrated song, "A Pack of Cards." Mr. Taylor has a remarkably fine voice, and knows how to use it. He was formerly on the stage, and clearly demonstrated his ability to please. He will probably appear again tonight.

Taking it all and all, it was a clean, clever performance, and one that pleased all present, and that cannot fail to please everybody. Only artists are employed by Mr. Taylor, this has given him reputation of having the best. Last night before the entertainment began, he made an address to the audience, saying that he intended to give the people of Paducah what they wanted, and was sure that his present show could do nothing but please. His salary list, if he should state it, he said, would be discredited.

He also said that he intended to run the park in such a manner that many friends during their short stay in Paducah, and will leave more than one sad heart when they take their departure. Miss Jennie will spend the summer in visiting Galveston, Texas and New Orleans.

AFTER REMAINING TWO WEEKS

Dr. Goldstein Finds He Will Have to Remain a Few Days Longer.

Sumantha at Saratoga, In a New Dress.

One of the funniest of all the funny books is certainly "Samantha at Saratoga." Will Carleton pronounces it "delicious humor," and Bishop Newman says it is "bitterest satire, coated with the sweetest of exhilarating fun." Formerly published by subscription at the price of $2.50, and sold, it is said, by the hundred thousand, it has recently been issued in an exquisite little cloth-bound volume in the "Cambridge Classics" series by the celebrated cheap book publishers, Horst & Co., of New York, as a means of widely advertising that series, and is sold at the fabulously low price of 25 cents. It would seem strange if they should not sell a million of them. They are sold by booksellers, or the publishers direct.

HER LAST ATTEMPT.

Annie Copeland, an unfortunate woman who has figured prominently in the police court lately, last night took a quarter's worth of morphine to shuffle off this mortal coil, but Dr. Robertson got there before the Grim Reaper did, and the latter was given the marble heart. Annie didn't die, and says that she doesn't want to die if it's any worse than that stomach pump. A general disgust with all things human and a few things inhuman, is what prompted the deed.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The case of John T. Clark against the Jackson Foundry and Machine Co., for $550, is now on trial in the circuit court.

It is a suit for damages against the machine company, the plaintiff having filed his action on the allegation that the defendant kept his wheat threshers so long he lost the above amount of work.

Mrs. Mayne Harris was today appointed an examiner for McCracken county.

Mr. Chas. Reed today filed suit in the court against Messrs. C. J. Whittemore and L. B. Anderson for $90 on a note.

In the case of Clark against the Jackson foundry, a judgment was rendered in favor of the defendant against the plaintiff for $187 and a lien on the threshers.

CAUGHT FIRE.

An Unusual Sight That Greeted the People on Broadway This Morning.

The Big Iron Steam Roller Comes Near Being Burned—It Escaped Destruction, However.

It is evident that the democrats do not know how to run a street roller, or else the fates are against them.

Mayor Lang recently rented the roller to the sewer contractors, they agreeing to indemnify the former against all damages provided the damages do not result from the carelessness or incompetency of the engineer. The city was to choose the engineer, and it did so.

The first time the machine was brought out, it persisted in going just in the opposite direction from the one desired. It finally got stuck in the gutter on Broadway, and after working with it part of one afternoon, it was finally gotten upon the street, and rolled around to the city hall, where it remained in the street for the small period of about two or three weeks.

Today a fire was built in it, and after some little perspiration, it was gotten around on Broadway, where it was the desire of the contractors to tear up the street and save labor with pick-axes in the hard gravel. All went well for a short time, but the next thing noticed was a large blaze enveloping the roller, and a volunteer fire department putting out the blaze. Buckets of water were hastily thrown on it, and finally the fire was subdued. It was a sight not often seen. There was some excuse for the L. C. roller, as it was a new machine, but to see a steam engine, able both outside and in, was something many never expected to be regaled with. The blaze, which was at the "jacket" was put out without the assistance of the fire department, however, and the roller was left in the middle of the street. It looks like the roller is displeased with the democratic administration. The republicans had no trouble with it.

POLICE COURT.

Only a Few Cases For Trial Today.

James Webb, colored, was docked in the police court this morning on a charge of beating his wife. He said he didn't beat her. Other witnesses said his wife wanted to move and he didn't, and they pushed her into the house. The case was left open, and the defendant released on his own recognizance.

The case against O. C. Boyd, charged with a breach of ordinance, by acting as agent for some second street house without a license, was dismissed.

The case against Nora Foote, charged with keeping a disorderly house, was fled away, as the defendant has left town.

J. Wayne pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness, and was fined $1 and costs.

A case against Wm. Anderson, charged with throwing dead dog in an alley, was continued until tomorrow morning.

George Harris, colored, was warranted on a charge of beating his wife, but has not been arrested.

PIGEONS RELEASED.

Four Distinguished Birds Fly Homeward.

This morning when Hon. John K. Hendrick came down from Smithland, he had a basket in his hand. It contained four homing pigeons, belonging to Hon. John Gray, of Smithland, which he brought down to release. Their names are respectively: Fitzhugh Lee, Dewey, Sampson and Schley.

Upon reaching the hill, the birds were released. They flew up, circled around, and wheeled off in the direction of Smithland. They were released here about 9 o'clock.

The pall bearers will be Messrs. Geo. C. Wallace, Hal. Walters, Jake Wallerstein, S. Fels, Sol Dreyfuss, Sport Epstein, Lee Schwab and Sam Starks.

BLASTING CASTINGS.

There were several explosions heard on the South Side this morning about 9:30 o'clock and for a times the residents did not know whether a boiler had exploded or whether it was only Schley taking Nantigua. It proved to be only some blastings at a foundry, however.

BADLY MASHED.

Joe Phillips Brought Here This Morning—Gravel Hit Caved in on Him.

Joe Phillips, colored, is the name of a man brought to the city this morning on the Hopkinsville train which arrived about 11 o'clock. He was badly mashed up, and his left leg was broken about the knee.

Phillips had been working at the O'Brien gravel pit about twelve miles above the city for Mr. Halloran. This morning while making an excavation, he dug too far under the embankment, and a huge pile of gravel fell upon him.

He was dug out as quickly as possible, and it was found that in addition to his broken leg, he had a bad wound in the head, and was internally injured. He was placed aboard the train and brought to Paducah, and when the Union depot was reached, there was no place to carry him, as the railroad company would not take him, he being no employee.

Mayor Lang was notified, and ordered the man taken to the city hospital, whither he was conveyed. He is not thought to be necessarily fatally injured.

A VACATION.

Cadet Clarence Landrum Here Today—Home From Annapolis.

Cadet Clarence Landrum, of Grand Rivers, was in the city today, en route home from the academy at Annapolis, where he has been for the past two years, on a vacation.

The young man has made splendid progress, and is enjoying a deserved rest. He is well known in Paducah, and was appointed by ex-Congressman John K. Hendricks. He will not graduate until next year. Mr. Landrum left this morning on the packet for Smithland, and from there will go home.

COUNCIL MEETING.

Called Session for Tonight—Little Business on Hand.

Mayor Lang has called a meeting of the council for tonight to grant ex-Tax Collector Katterjohn his quitas. There will also be taken up the matter of improving West Broadway and East Court street, by changing the grades, to secure the proper drainage.

SUPR. SULLIVAN HERE.

En Route to the St. Louis Division of the I. C.

General Superintendent A. W. Sullivan, of the Illinois Central, arrived in the city this morning on his private car en route from Louisville to the St. Louis division.

He was at the union depot this forenoon, but left on the noon train for the other division. He was accompanied by his family.

MIDSUMMER TRIPS.

The ferryboat Belle Owen will tomorrow morning begin making her regular summer trips, beginning at 6 o'clock, a. m., instead of 7 a. m., as she has been doing for the past several months. This will be a great boon to fishing parties.

A LOST BOY.

Yesterday the little 2-year-old son of Deputy Circuit Clerk Will Kidd ran away from home. He wandered about for a few hours, and was finally found half a mile from home, by Miss Mary Grief. The little fellow was bareheaded, and said he was on his way to Cairo.

ANOTHER FLAG HERE.

The new flag for the high school building arrived yesterday afternoon, and will be raised as soon as the program can be arranged.

The location of the present flag pole, it is understood, is unsatisfactory.

TAKEN TO HOPKINSVILLE.

Miss Nettie Witty was taken to the Hopkinsville asylum this morning by Constable Patton, and Mrs. Judge Campbell accompanied the unfortunate woman to control her in case she became violent.

TAKES CHARGE TOMORROW.

Mr. M. L. Teevin arrived last night from Cairo, and tomorrow morning again becomes local manager of the Standard Oil company to succeed Mr. S. W. Bennett. Mr. Teevin's many friends are pleased to see him again.

OUT AGAIN.

The steam roller adorned the streets again today, after a several days illness. It was taken out about 8:30 o'clock to plow up the streets on Court and Broadway, where the sewer
